"Right on the job, the top of the list, just where we belong.

"If you look the figures over carefully, it will be easy to see that the batteries with the long discount are not there.

'Get this: 3319 'Exides' gave a total life of 91,119 months, while 4699 batteries comprising 31 different makes gave a total life of 86,391 months.

"A smaller number of 'Exides' (30% less) gave 5% more life than all the 31 competitors put together. "Our worry is not quality; furthermore a battery with a long discount cannot change these results because they are facts." (Signed) GEORGE R. MURPHY, For San Francisco Branch.

AKRON, O., Sept. 30 .- Twenty years igo Oct. 2, Barney Oldfield drove an automobile for the first time in his He won a five-mile race at Prosse Point, near Detroit, in 5:26. The winning car called the "Cooper Special," was built by Henry Ford. Later it was known as the "999."

"To measure progress," someone once advised, "look backward."

Oldfield, now president of an Akron tire company bearing his name, was perfectly willing to look backward when reminded of the 20th anniversary of his first race. He's much the same Barney as of old; minus the eccentricities he displayed (mostly for advertising purposes be it known) in is racing days.
